Passover meals on the go

If you're Jewish you know how difficult it is to keep kosher for Passover if you eat lunch away from home. But My Own Meals Inc. of Deerfield, Mich., is making life a lot easier with two shelf-stable kosher for Passover meals.

My Own Meals already puts out a line of 12 kosher entrees that need no refrigeration. They can be heated in a microwave or in boiling water.

The meals, a beef stew and chicken stew, are certified kosher for Passover by Rabbis Aaron and Moses Soloveichik. All beef is certified glatt kosher.

My Own Meals also prepares halal meals for Muslims, vegetarian, and wheat- and corn-free meals. The Passover meals can be ordered directly from My Own Meals using a credit card. The price is $3.92 a meal when ordering a case of 12, or $4.50 when ordering individual meals. Call (708) 948-1118.
