

FOOD IN REVIEW

Eye-catchers: Dawn Food Products, Inc. introduces new Premium Pie Fillings, quality pie fillings with high percentages of whole fruit, offering clean, sharp flavor and great eye appeal. Available in Apple, Blueberry, Cherry, Peach, Pineapple and Strawberry. They're freeze/thaw stable, with no boil-out. Packaged in 19-lb. and 45-lb. pails; apple in 18- and 42-lbs. DAWN: circle 307

Both kosher and halal: Foods are being asked to not only meet health requirements but also religious dietary requirements. Now My Own Meals, Inc. introduces its line of 14 shelf-stable meals. Some are vegetarian, kosher, halal, dual certified kosher and halal, kosher for Passover, wheat and corn free. Dual certification also ideal for vegetarians. MY OWN MEALS: circle 310

Scrumptious stuffing: Pierce Foods serves up Classic Treasures Apple•Raisin•Almond stuffed chicken featuring a moist blend of whole plump California raisins, chunks of sauteed Shenandoah Valley apples and a crunch of roasted almonds. It's all wrapped inside unbreaded, solid natural chicken breasts, prepared and ready to bake from frozen. For more info: 1-800-321-1470

Chef Russell Fant of the Carroll Lutheran Village Apartments in Westminster, MD. His winning recipe was Lamb Wellington Pacifica. The Roundtable for Women in Foodservice announces the selection of Marilyn Carlson Nelson as the 1995 Woman of the Year. She will be honored at the annual Pacesetter Luncheon, May 22. Carlson is the current vice chair of Minneapolis, MN-based Carlson Holdings, Inc. She has served as sr. v.p. and, for more than 20 years, was the dir. of community relations for Carlson Companies, Inc. With her father, Curt Carlson, she helps run one of the largest privately held corporations in the world, employing 100,000 people and with annual sales of more than $10 billion.